Dear Kenn:

You should never write and as if I have "plans""

We've set no particular date for the formal opening of this exhibit primarily because I was not sure exactly when it would be here, but now that I know that its on its way the date will be Friday, May 30. Yes, I know that its a holiday, but we'll make it a holiday in more ways than one.

If you think you're coming out here just to set up the display, I have a little surprise for you. On May 30 we'll not only be setting up the nickel display, but we'll also be judging National Coin Week' scrapbooks. Have no fear, the task will not be too great since only about two dozen books have been submitted. However, you are one of the judges. Congratulations!

Seriously, I do hope that this day is convenient for you for I would like you to serve as a judge and we'll be cutting the ribbon for the nickel display on that day (I hope).

Sincerely,

EDWARD C. ROCHEUTE

Dear Ed:

I shipped the nickel coin exhibit to you from Ottawa on May 5th, and since have been informed that it has cleared U. S. Customs at Alexandria Bay, N. Y. and is on its' merry way to Colorado by truck.

Please let me know what you have planned and I will see what I can do from this end. If no ceremony is planned I will try to arrange to come out and set it and the two smaller exhibits up for you.

Hope to see you soon. Best,

Sincerely,

Kenn Henderson
